Mrs. Waller presented the Director's Report and discussed the following:

- A new Board member was just appointed in the Special Called Fiscal Court Meeting this afternoon. The new Board member is Kathi Mattas. Ms. Mattas was in attendance at the Board Meeting, so Mrs. Waller introduced her, and Ms. Mattas said everything had proceeded very quickly but she was happy to serve on the Board and looked forward to getting acquainted with the meetings and the Board members.
- Silas House, Kentucky Poet Laureate, and national bestselling author will be speaking at the May Rooster Booster. The Library has purchased a quantity of his book to take to Rooster Booster to give away and he will hopefully sign the books for people attending.

- The quarterly Foundation meeting was Tuesday and the Foundation Board approved a distribution of $10,000 to the Library to purchase adult books for the Daviess County Detention Center.
- The Friends of the Library Book Sale started this past weekend and is going on until Friday.
- To celebrate National Library Week, our Marketing Team created videos of community members discussing their experiences with the Library which were shared on social media.
- The Library participated in the Grab-A-Bag Job Fair in partnership with GRADD and the Career Center and we gave away about 225 bags in about two and a half hours.

There was no Old Business.

Susan Gesser called for Public Comment. Arnie Weiner said that he has been using library services for 70 years. He said that early 20th century libraries had evolved to the advanced libraries we now have and that was due to the work done by licensed and trained staff and leaders of the library, including the Library Director. He encouraged everyone to use the Library.

Having no further business to come before the Board, Rodney Ellis made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Chris Gendek seconded, and the motion carried unanimously. The meeting was adjourned at 5:15 p.m. The next meeting of the Daviess County Public Library Board of Trustees will be on Wednesday, May 15, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. in the Third Floor Board Room.
